(Gvcalligraphy.org)
Is Pleased To Present

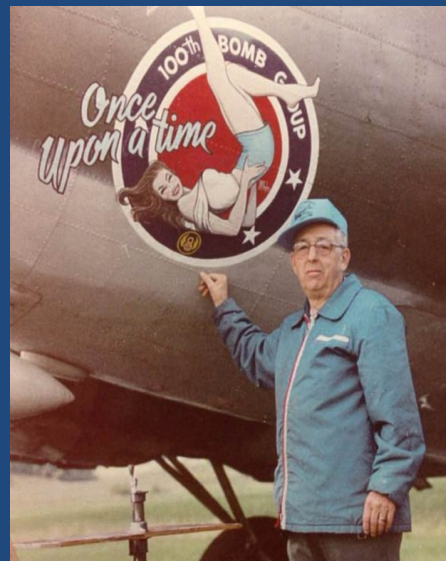

“AN EVENING WITH OWEN HUGHES”

Owen Hughes, a Newark resident, will present tales of his times to The Genesee Valley Calligraphy Guild and friends.

Mr. Hughes, a 100 year old WWII veteran, artist and calligrapher will be talking of his experiences during the war and beyond.

One of the last remaining WWII nose/pin-up airplane artists, he will share some of his extraordinary journeys and discuss how when you follow your heart and dreams amazing things can happen.

This event is free and open to the public.
